Well sweetie, I can't believe this time has finally come, but it has. Honestly, it's been a long time coming. We've had a lot of good times together and you have been such a good friend.

I hope you'll always remember me, I'll remember you. And since we'll just be a state away from each other, we'll have to visit each other all the time. My door will always be open for you (actually for any gorgeous blond who wants to come in!) Have a great summer!

Homecoming candidate Beth Williford and Nile Spiegel patiently wait to have their pictures taken.

"We're just one big happy family"

"Aren't I adorable!" Becky Oliver strikes a pose before the homecoming parade.

Anne G. Brewster and Scott Gatherum take time at lunch to listen to some tunes.

"He turned out just fine" Mrs. Dodson proudly presents Kevin May, another student who found guidance in her room.

Sharon Furnari shows her reaction to a practical joke.

Constant Change

Doug Shinault, Alisa Barker, Karen Harkrader, and Dawn Johnson discuss the day's activities.

Constant change is an appropriate way to describe the events that have occurred during our years as students at Bluefield High School. New courses of study, new teachers, coaches and administration, a remodeled cafeteria, computers, new band uniforms, the Beaver-Park, and concerned extra-curricular clubs are all part of the parade of the changing scenario. As always the students are adjusting well to the parade of events which influence their daily routine. The variety of activities available span the curriculum from advanced placement to the local chapter of Students Against Drunk Driving.

Not only has our school changed, but every student who attends Bluefield High School leaves with a sense of pride and accomplishment knowing that he is not the same person who entered as a sophomore.

School is more than classes from 8:15 to 3:15, it is a way of life. Anyone who wants to belong, to be a part of the larger spectrum of life can find his niche in our future alma mater.

Our daily routine leaves us with memories which will last a lifetime. Each day is a new beginning filled with those memories.

"Authority in action", Mr. Norton watches over the student body at an assembly.

Shayne Miller catches some rays while studying in the park.

The new band uniform makes Ricky Poff look really tall.

A group of juniors show their enthusiasm and spirit at a pep rally.

Study hall gives Doug Shinault, Kendal Foster, Becky Combs, and J.J. Budner a chance to socialize.

Togetherness . . . Is Sharing A Special Memory

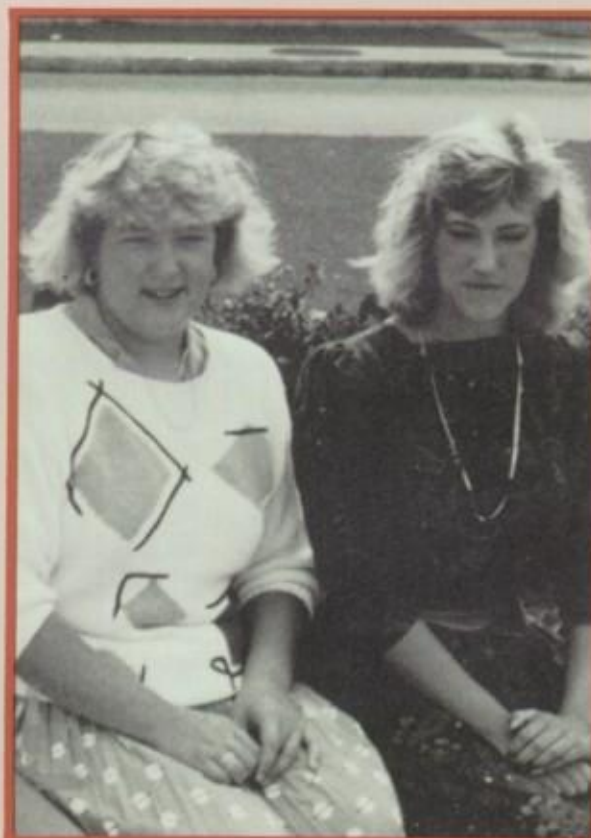

Friendship is more than a smile. It is trust, caring, and support: it is a unique person who will be there not only for the celebrations, but also for the worst of times. A friend will share your joy, your success and your failures making each memory more special just by their devotion and presence. A ball game, a tournament, or an average day would all be very lonely without the most important people — true friends.

"The Best of Friends," Karen Ammar and Aimee Barnett enjoy time together at a Beaver football game.

Terri Rounion and Rachel Pruett have the kind of friendship that will last forever.

Kevin Taylor insists that he should be a candidate for Homecoming Queen instead of pals Cathy Allen and Kris Mattox.

Friends practically as long as Peanut-Butter and Jelly have been around Anne G. Brewster and Amy Peacock visit in the park.

Laura Johnson and Monique King pause as they share memories together at the homecoming game.

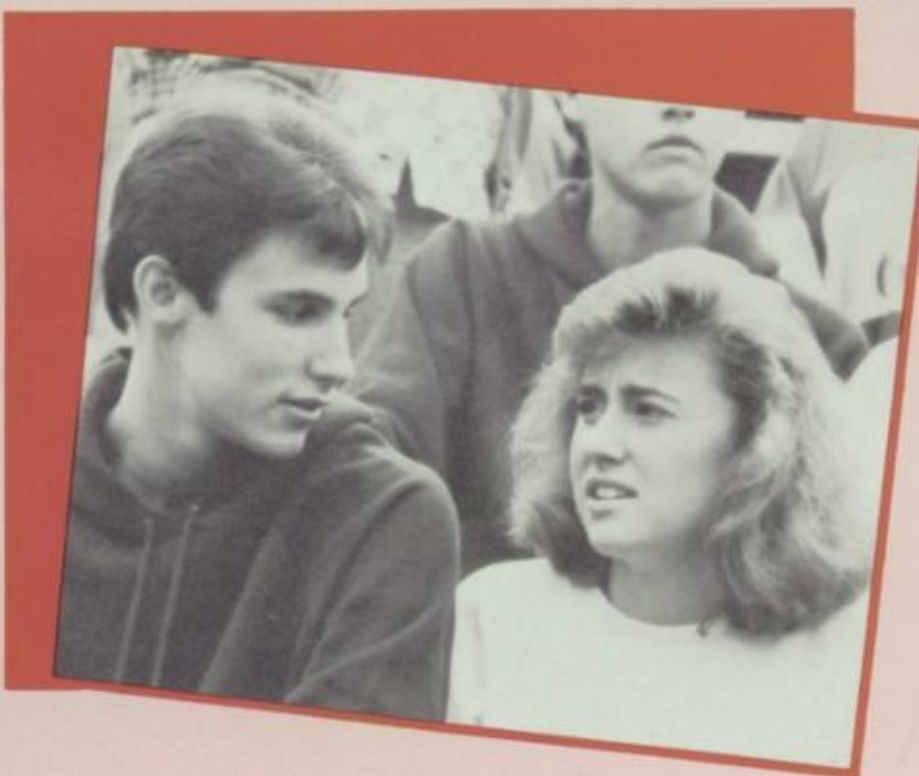

Michelle Riffe, Cheryl White, Candi Neal, and Robin Witt make a quick pose before lunch.

"Hey we knew we'd beat Graham!" confess Paul Cromer and Tim Duesing.

Steve O'Saile attempts to explain the finer points of football to a confused Kim Kendall.

"Florida or bust!" but it might be a long ride with Annie Hu on Nicole Randall's back.

Daily Doubles

One of the most familiar sights at Bluefield High School is young couples in love. Yes, Cupid has been a resident of BHS for thirty years now, and definitely shows no sign of leaving. No matter how hopeless your Monday or how frantic your Friday has been, there are always those few precious moments before and after school, between classes, and at lunch with that special someone who makes each day just a little bit nicer.

Pitching woo to Alison Pujari, Mike Goforth says, "Just one kiss won't hurt."

Charlie Thompson and Angie Hurt share a few special moments together between classes.

For Susan Davis and Kevin Lambert, it must be 'Love Sweet Love.'

"Yes, blondes do have more fun! Especially together" agree Bo Lilly and Ginger Parish.

As she looks into his eyes, Patricia Ammar is telling David Hall, "I only have eyes for you."

"She's MY girl," Mark Jones says when refering to Rachel Pruett.

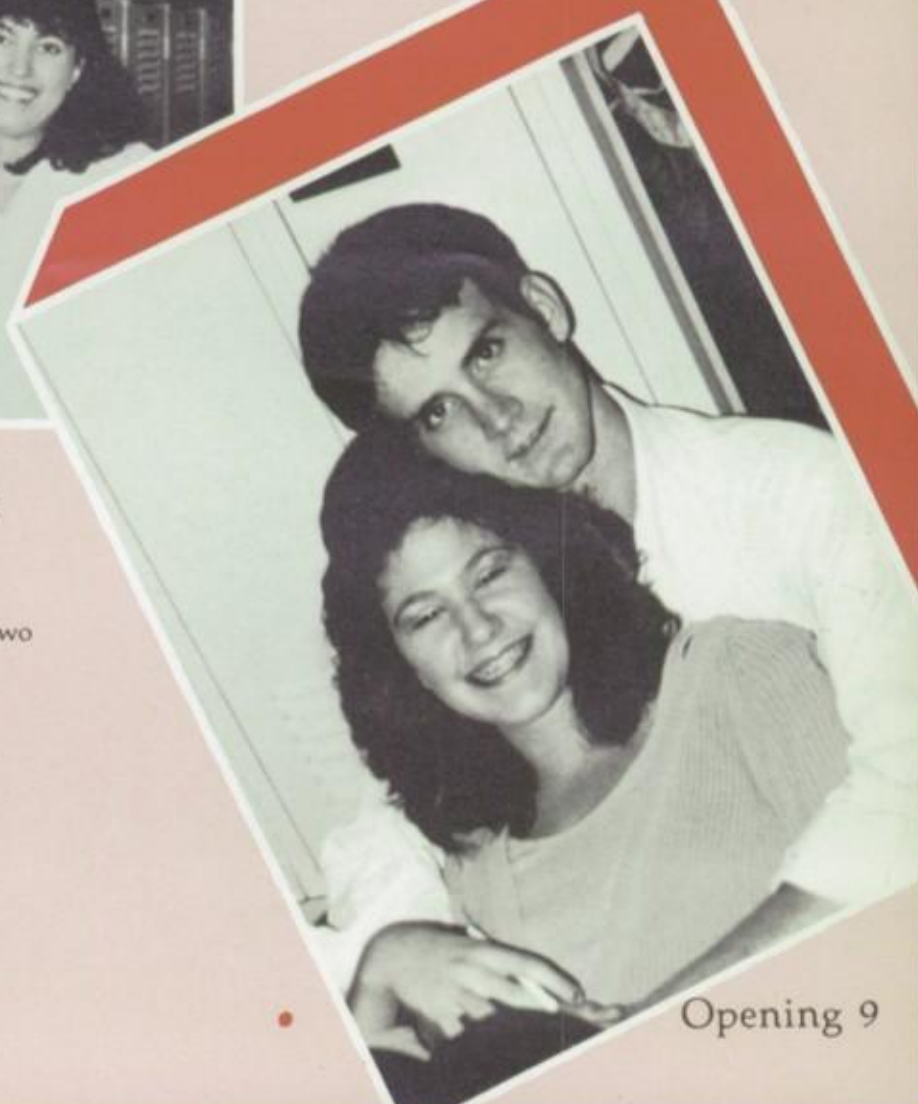

When Kevin May dons his 'shades' and a sweet pucker, Dreema Tabor asks, "Do you think that's gonna turn me on?"

Steve Hatcher tells Catherine Looney "You can lean on me and I'll be there."

Jean Ellen Wingate and Dennis Thompson insist that they "are two together, together forever."

Tina Bailey and Shane Burnett are caught in the hall on their way to the next class.

Familiar aces

"Friends Always" William Spivey and Annie Hu.

Field Conductor Lisa Akers accepts her first place trophy at a fall band competition.

"Quarterback Princess" Missy Barnes shows her form during jersey day of spirit week.

"She's my girl!" Mike Goforth grins as he and Alison Pujari pause on their way to class.

"We've got spirit." The Dam Clan took their enthusiasm and Beaver Pride with them everywhere they went.

"Are we models or what?" ask Lisa Pendry and Donna Cameron.

"We Believe!" Beaver Pride shows on the faces of C. Burton, S. Gatherum, K. Mitchell, S. Ferrell, and C. Diamondidis as they ride a fire truck in the homecoming parade.

"The beat is here!" Drummers M. Whittakker, S. Hatcher, and D. Neal play during a pep assembly.

"Hey!" Jan Meidinger shouts as Miranda Schlag gives a confused gaze.

Kim, "Flash that cover girl smile!"

"This is mine!" Jonathan Tomchin keeps a firm grip on his trusty pica ruler.

"Get in there!" Coach Simon instructs his boys.

"Look at me!" Brian Currence says.

"What's up?" asks Mary Dodrill during a third quarter break.

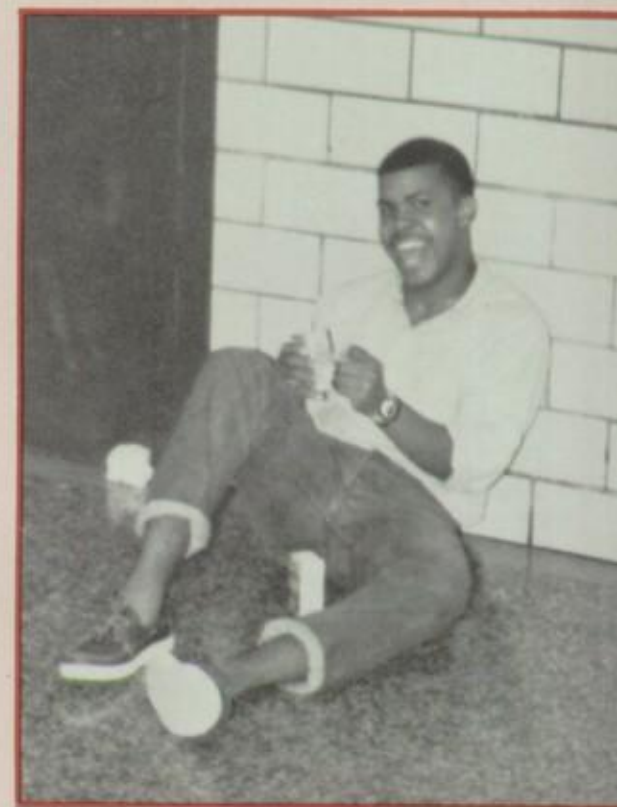

Kim Kangkasuwan, "Smile, you're on Todd's camera."

What Is A Boy Beaver

The "Men" of B.H.S. can be found everywhere, in the halls, classrooms, at football games, McDonald's and even on a great fishing trip. This is just a sample of our guys to show you the variety of "Beaver Boys." Monty Coppola and his best pal Mr. Saunders match so well today in their plaids and florals — but can they ever be as relaxed as Thomas "Dubby" Simmons or as wild as all our enduring fans? Ronnie Taylor wants to wave at his fans — and Kevin Taylor wants you to know how his day was but, "the greatest confusion has occurred" says Shaneil Thompson as he asks, "Are you sure that Mike Miller is a B.H.S. student?" While Ricky Poff, Victor Sawyers and Greg Shrewsbury are checking out the female situation at McDonald's, Chris Burton, Hampton Shields, Scott Gatherum, Jim Austin, and Shayne Ferrell prepare for their Big Night on the town. Finally their true studliness is shown as Chuck Brown, Pat Cisco, Matt Beck, Ronnie Quick, and Hampton Shields relax during class. These guys are true "Beavers" through and through and every day bring new meaning to the definition of being a "Beaver."

Munching-Out

is only one of the lunch-time activities

Shayne Ferrell, Joi Beth Linkous, and Kevin Mitchell enjoy their lunch out in our new Beaver Park.

Studying in the lunchroom? The addition of booths make studying and spending time with friends easy in the cafeteria.

These five guys share their lunch break upstairs among familiar faces.

"I'm sure you'll fit Carolyn!" says Melonie Andrews as she stuffs Carolyn Bowen into her locker.

"He likes it! He likes It!" Chris Diamondidis proves that real men do eat their vegetables.

For Beaver men, studying never ceases as they prepare for an afternoon class.

"You're kidding!" Beth Williford and Linda Looney share a bit of juicy gossip.

"Deep in serious thought". LeighAnn Justice is in another world.

Several students share a special moment in the smoking area.

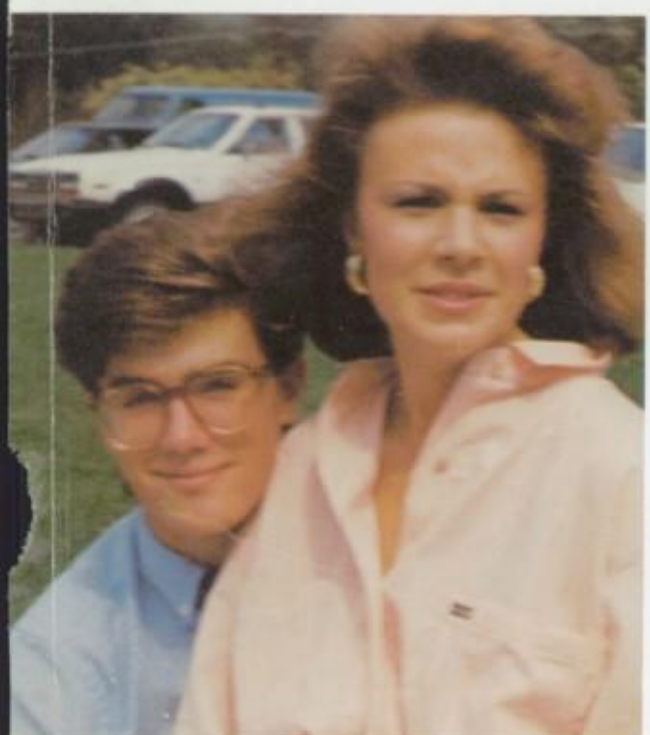

A variety of activities take place every day during lunch.

A student relaxes while he studies for his fifth period test.

"Rabbit?" Brian Caldwell gives Julie Rutherford "Bunny" ears as she visits with Kelly Muncy and Nicole Randall.

"Smile!" Nicole Auville and Chris Burton take a break in the park.

Beavers . . .

Are Not All Four-Footed, Fuzzy Creatures

Just being enrolled at Bluefield High doesn't make you a "Beaver." To be a true "Beaver," you must possess the pride, spirit, and confidence that has been characteristic of our school for the last 30 years. BHS was founded on respect; this is evidence in every corner of the school. Our perennial motto "We Believe," has carried three decades of athletes and cheerleaders, actors and debaters, singers and band members, as well as many other school leaders to top honors throughout the state and nation. Each day, inside the brick walls of Bluefield Senior High School there are 900 people proud to be "Beavers."

Being a Beaver Cheerleader takes lots of pep and enthusiasm. Angie Graham claps the beavers to a victory early in the season.

A new Beaver Homecoming Queen is crowned. Michelle Broyles receives roses from Mr. Norton after being chosen Homecoming Queen for 1986.

Beaver Scientist Stacey Frederick eagerly shows us his latest chemical project.

The Beaver band always provides students with enthusiasm and that proverbial Beaver Pride — here Steven Dunford helps Robert Rowe adjust his instrument.

BHS Students Attend Boy's/Girl's State

Seven of Bluefield High School's finest students participated in the annual Girl's and Boy's State Leadership Camps sponsored each year by the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary. The summer camps are intense week-long studies of current government policies and issues and is held at the West Virginia 4-H Camp in Jackson's Mill. Officials were elected at the beginning of the week to lead their peers for the duration of the camp and BHS was honored by having all of its participants elected to hold an office. The students from BHS were: Patricia Ammar, Anne G. Brewster, Dan Arrington, Chris Burton, Mark Jones, Darrell Malimasura, and Shannon Muncy.

Beaver Achievers

Bluefield High School was pleased to hear that in their midst were National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalists once again. William Spivey and Lennie Walker were notified of their Semi-Finalist status in late fall, making them eligible for scholarship money given annually to this elite group of students.

With the support of the Bluefield Kiwanis club, BHS is again participating in the Hugh O'Brian Leadership Foundation. Each fall, students are asked to write essays about themselves describing their achievements and leadership qualities. This year's recipient of the award is Eric Perkins.

Each year, the NASSP sponsors a nationwide competition for the Century III Leadership Award, and again BHS is proud to participate. This year's school winner was Michael Farley. He then competed on the state level where he was named one of the top ten applicants in the state. The contest encourages students to think about problems and possible solutions that will face America in its third century.

Seniors Hold Student Government Day

BHS Students Elected To Offices

WVASC President Michael Barber and Secretary Angie Graham.

1986 was definitely the year for the Bluefield High Student Council. First, we were represented at the National Convention in Oklahoma City by four students, then had 12 representatives at the State Workshop in July. Now, Michael Barber and Angie Graham have added another honor to that impressive list. Michael was elected President of the West Virginia Assn. of Student Councils while Angie was elected it's Secretary. Quite a responsibility will come along with these duties, but two of Bluefield's finest are sure to come through. In June, 1987, they will travel to the National Convention in New York, and then lead the state summer camp.

English Bowl

The BHS English Bowl Team is a group of competitive scholars in the field of English. The squad is open to all students with the proper recommendations. Practices are held every Wednesday after school and mock competitions are held twice a month. Rebecca Steorts, the club's sponsor, helps the students pull together the knowledge they have accumulated for the purpose of competition with their peers.

Exchange

First of all, I want to thank Chris Garrett's family for having put up with me and giving me so much of their time and love. I also want to thank Bluefield High School for allowing me to attend school while visiting Bluefield, WV. I would also like to thank the teachers for their help. I will never forget the good times that I have had here at BHS when I return home to Guatemala.

Erwin Rubio

My name is Carlos Guilherme Clauset. I am an exchange student from Sao Paulo, Brazil here in Bluefield, WV. My six month stay here in America has been very enjoyable and the family I am living with, the Miller's, have been great.

BHS's own Ronnie Akers volunteers much of his free time to help the Bluefield, WV Rescue Squad Department.

Students

One year in an American high school is a dream for students around the world — but I am one of the few who are able to. I have learned many things during my stay with the Crotts' and my year at Bluefield High School. I will always remember the wonderful times I had here when I return home to Germany this summer. Thanks to everyone!

Jan-Hendrik Meidinger

Greetings to BHS! My name is Ricardo Naval and I am an exchange student from Spain. I am now living with Bruce Etter's family in Bluefield, and I have enjoyed it very much. I am happy to attend BHS and to have known so many great people!

1987 All-State Choir

Each year, Mrs. Baldwin chooses All-State Choir members from Bluefield High School. Interested students tried out for this honor but only four could be chosen. Mary Dodrill and Kathy Leffel were the females selected, and Jeff Walker and William Spivey were the males selected. These students will participate in the West Virginia All-State Chorus March 26, 27, 28 in Huntington, West Virginia, where they will perform in an Honor Choir of West Virginia choral students.

Mrs. Baldwin and six Bluefield High School students participated in Show Choir Camps of America at Ohio State University July 27-August 2. Kim Kendall, Mark Hale, Susan Austin, Jean Prazacky, Angel Taylor and Sara Lowe practiced with their choirs approximately seven hours a day to prepare a show performed on the last day of camp. Ken Page, Old Deuteronomy from Cats, visited the camp to talk with the students and perform. Workshops were offered on dance, vocal performance, jazz, and caring for the voice. The skills learned at this camp contribute to a productive year for the Show Choir.

The National Shakespeare Company

Romeo and Juliet

Bluefield High School was enlivened November 20 and 21 when The National Shakespeare Company arrived for the performance of Romeo and Juliet, the famous love story. The Interact and Drama Clubs worked closely with the tour to make their stay in Bluefield great by helping to set the stage, steam the costumes, set up the lights, and give advice on restaurants, and even some history of the area. Numerous students from Drama classes at BHS and Princeton Sr. High also had the opportunity to attend a workshop given by the actors centered on technique, and dramatic exercises. In getting to know some of the cast members, they also learned more about careers in acting and the best places to study acting. During the two sold-out performances, over 1500 students from the Two Virginias and surrounding areas had the chance to see a bit of New York close to home.

"Homecoming Queen" — an honor many high school girls dream of receiving. Imagine waiting in line on the field along with thirty-two other candidates. It seems as though thousands of eyes are staring at you, when to your amazement the announcer calls out your name to reign as the Homecoming Queen for the year. Well, this year, on the cool, crisp, autumn night of September 19, 1986, 32 senior girls nervously awaited the announcement of the 1986 Homecoming Queen. "Could it be me?" # Jr. Miss Tradition At BHS

Each year, Senior girls from the local high schools are invited to participate in the Mercer County Junior Miss Program. This year, BHS was well represented by Mary Dodrill, Lisa Pendry, Becky Oliver, Paula Thorton, Kim Kendall, Kris Mattox, and Michelle Baugh. The girls practiced three hours a night, two nights a week, for five weeks. The contestants were judged in five areas including scholarship, poise and appearance, physical fitness, talent, and interview. In the end, their hard work and dedication paid off. Lisa Pendry won the talent competition with a rousing dramatic interpretation, and BHS's own Kim Kendall won the county title and will represent Mercer County in the state program held in March.

Miss Flame Winners Are Selected

Each year, the Bluefield Jr. Woman's Club, in conjunction with the Bluefield Fire Department, sponsors the annual Miss Flame competition during Fire Prevention Week. This year, nine girls were chosen from different clubs and organizations throughout Bluefield High School competed for the titles of Miss Flame and Miss Intermediate Flame. These contestants were required to present a speech consisted of their interests, activities, and goals, on which they were judged by six members of the community on the basis of poise, appearance, and resume. Bluefield High School students participating were: Seated — Laura Johnson, Candi Neal, Michelle Riffe, Annie Hu, and Nicole Randall. Standing — Sharon Belcher, and Tammy Crews.

BHS senior Amy Peacock was chosen Miss Flame 1986.

Faculty And Administration

ADMINISTRATION

Bill Norton,
Principal

The responsibilities of running a school such as BHS are great in number but the administration has handled them successfully. In his fourth year as principal, Mr. Norton is in charge of curriculum development, teacher evaluations, and the master schedule. Through the cooperation and hard work of Mr. Norton and his two colleagues, the administration has overcome many barriers while encouraging school pride.

Don White,
Assistant Principal

There are two new faces in the administration this year. This is the first year as assistant principal for Mr. Estep. He has been a force in the English department for over ten years and last year he served as attendance director. Mr. Estep is in charge of discipline, athletics, extra curricular activities, lockers, and parking.

Mr. White is a familiar face for many who had him for a science teacher at BJHS. He also served as assistant principal at PJHS. Mr. White is responsible for attendance, special ed., lunch program, announcements, and text books.

We would like to wish these men the best of luck in the upcoming years at BHS and beyond.

Larry Estep,
Assistant Principal

OFFICE STAFF

Arlene Hare,
Secretary

The two adjectives that most describe our office staff are helpful and efficient. Our secretary, Arlene Hare, is always there to answer the telephone and questions from students, faculty, and parents. She also types and fills out necessary letters and forms for the administration and staff. Joyce Clark, our bookkeeper, also upholds her responsibilities. Her job description includes keeping an accurate record of deposits and withdrawals from the many school and organizational accounts as well as many other financial tasks. With their expertise, they lighten the load for the administration while keeping the office running smoothly.

Joyce Clark,
Bookkeeper

GUIDANCE COUNSELORS

Joy Robinette,
Guidance Counselor

What would we do without our guidance department here at BHS? Our counselors are always willing to be helpful. The development of personal and academic counseling for the students, such as changing a schedule or just being there to listen, provides a program of counseling which begins at the time of enrollment. This could only be done by giving individual attention to each student. The student body greatly appreciates their efforts.

COOKS AND CUSTODIANS WORK HARD

The BHS Cafeteria was greatly improved this year with the additional selection of foods. Many thanks to our hardworking cooks for their well-balanced and nutritional meals. The nourishment keeps students ready and aware throughout the afternoon. The BHS Student Body and faculty appreciates their hard work and realizes that the cafeteria staff is indispensable.

School Athletics — they set the tone for the whole school. Athletes, coaches, and managers work hard to represent Bluefield High in the best possible manner. They do their best to give the fans the kind of game they have come to see. Beaver Pride is stressed above all else, and this pride is always reflected on the field of play. It is this pride that will live on in our memories.

The 1986 Bluefield High School football team had a very young, but talented squad, plus an experienced line and signal-caller. The team also showed promise and leadership for next year's roster. Starting off the season with an extremely emotional win over the Graham G-men, in which the Beavers were dubbed the "underdogs" from the beginning, proved that the "We Believe" spirit once again rubbed the crosstown rivals' faces in the mud. After that, Bluefield suffered a 14-0 shutout to the now State Champ Tazewell Bulldogs. Following a tough loss, with an excellent defensive struggle to the Bulldogs, the Beavers traveled to Greenbrier East where they shut-out the fiery Spartans 7-0. After that, the Beavers could not collect another victory. Although there were many close battles, the Beavers always went down fighting. Through this, they showed devout Beaver players and fans, seniors who would not quit, and juniors and sophomores who show promise and leadership in the years to come.

1986 Football Managers

Jason Herndon, Jay Lester, Michael Goforth, Willie Smith, and Norman Smith

"Get the tape!" "Wrap that ankle!" "Somebody get the balls!" "Where's my other sock!?" A manager's job is never done! These five guys faithfully attended every practice, every scrimmage, and every game, never failing to put forth 100% to support their team. They do all the dirty work — like washing muddy practice uniforms — but receive none of the glory for all their hard work.

No job is too big — nor too small — for a manager. Three cheers for the men behind the team.

There are new and old clubs, just as the students come and go — yet the moments shared in extra-curricular activities will make the memories that will last a lifetime.

Drama I Students Perform

The 1986-87 Drama students, under the direction of Ms. Anita Caldwell, learned that it takes many hours of hard work to produce a good play. After working hard during rehearsals and blocking their lines, the students had the task of overcoming stage fright and forgotten lines. Their hard work paid off as the plays came to a close and the auditorium erupted with applause. Pictured are ROW 1: Sarah Lowe, Tabby Williamson, Jennifer Thompson, Stefanie Rash, Angie Graham, and Pam Anderson. # With Smokeless Tobacco, You Could Be His Spittin' Image.

Why would anyone use smokeless tobacco? After all, there's evidence that smokeless can cause cancer. And cancer could claim your cheek. Your jaw. Maybe even your life. So before you have a dip or a chew, be sure to use your head. While it's still all there.

Emily, (Yanna)

Well, we finally made it!! I'm so glad that we're graduating!! Although, I am going to miss you! We've had a lot of fun through the years, even at dear, departed Fairview!! It's hard to believe we went to school on what now is a playground!! It's really kind of sad! BHS was one experience we like to forget! We had some fun, but it really wasn't too good! I've truly enjoyed our years at BHS! I'm very glad we've stayed close friends! You're a sweet girl and I know you'll go far! I'm so happy that you are going to go to Alabama! I know you're excited!! But don't forget me, since I'm not going away! I wish you all the happiness in the world - 'cause you deserve it!! Remember me!

HATCHER!

Love Ya
Catherine

P.S. Be sure to be home for the wedding!!

Personal Thanks

The 1987 Beaver comes to you after much hard work and dedication from the staff. The Class of 1987 will be the thirtieth graduating class of Bluefield High, and we have prepared a very unique yearbook for this very special year. The book's color, Pearl, symbolizes this anniversary and the maroon reminds us of the "We Believe" motto which is prevalent through these hallowed halls. The excitement we had in bringing you this book shows on every page.

The time we have shared has been full of constant change in not only our daily school routine, but in the nation which awaits us as well. The days of progress, turmoil, decision, adjustment, and acceptance are fast becoming the memories of our future. Our golden days of preparation to face reality outside the protection of these halls grow full in the anticipation of graduation. That special ambiance created through years of sharing can be recreated in our distant futures by a glance at the photographs made and solemnized in this book during the days which were ours.

Before we can bring this book to a close, there are several people whom we, the staff, must recognize: Special thanks to the Administration and Faculty for being patient when we had to take students out of class for photographs; to Mrs. Joyce Clarke for helping us to stay within our budget; to Mr. Danny Boring for being there; to Mr. Jim Graham for the photographs; to Mr. Edward McQuail for our historical information; to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Burton for pictures of unique "Beaver" happenings; and to the advertisers and patrons for their continued support.

I would like to extend my deepest thanks and gratitude to assistant editor Michael Farley, business manager Tammy Bowes, and all the individual section editors for their hard work. Without their dedication, this book would not exist. I would also like to thank the staff; I greatly appreciate the dedication shown by each of you.

I cannot forget the three people who have given me support, guidance, and inspiration — my parents and Ms. Anita Caldwell. You have stood by me, been there always, and given hope when I could see none.

As you look upon these pages which hold the memories of our year at BHS, I hope you feel as proud of it as we do. We hope that it contains all the things that you expect from a yearbook because you, the students, are the reason this book was produced. As I look back on this year, I remember the activities of my senior year, the many hours of work, and the late nights as hectic deadlines grew near. I'm happy the book is finished, yet I feel a sadness when I think that my final year at BHS is through. I will never forget the memories of this year, many of which are preserved in this book. The pages will forever contain a special place in my heart.

Sincerely,

Amy Addington Peacock

than their best;*

To those who worked —

And never wavered from their obligations for a deadline;

To Amy —

Who held it all together with grace and determination;

I dedicate the essence of this yearbook.

To a good looking girl that I was happy to escort during homecoming. It been alot of fun having class with you fun at Bama and be real successful ~~like~~ ~~as~~ like me after school is out, and after

Em,
A great friend

It's been so long

Em, well, darling we finally made it all the way through school and it took a lot of cheating to do it. I'm glad you were there to help me and do it my friend. Even if we didn't always see things eye to eye. I am glad that I've gotten to know you over the years and I hope to see some more of you. Good luck in what ever you attempt. your friend Matt Beck Em, It was a struggle but we finally made it. Too bad we wanted it to go by and now we want it back. I wish we would have had more classes together this year, but what we had was great. Thank you for all the help. We'll see who's superior in the SEC, the TIDE or the VOLS.

Em,

Can you believe it - the years of struggle and strife are over. It's hard to imagine that we've known each other for so many years - 18? (or so) We've been through a lot in these past years... Ichthus... Memorial... Hide-n-Seek... Jincastle Club Houses... Swinteam... EVERYTHING!! The memories are fantastic and are sure to last forever! This year has been totally unbelievable!! Remember the "Mountain View Gang?" When I look ahead, I know that the future will be super - I hope that we will stay in touch forever - You will always remain a special part of my heart - The memories will always be close and special to me. I know that you will succeed in anything, and everything that you do - especially at Alabama.

Thank you for all your help, support and ideas with this book - the long hours finally paid off - Your Homecoming fold-out is fantastic! You are a truly special friend.

Love ya! Always!

Em, Well, its almost over. Our years at BHS are coming to an end. We've been through so much ever since Memorials... Fairview, UMYF, Jethus, Van Halen concert and so much more. All these memories are very special to me. I remember two years ago the "fabulous four" (Amy, Patricia, you and me) were always going to remain friends. Needless to say, that didn't exactly happen but you and I did survive. Well, Amy too but I know I can talk to you about anything! I'm really going to miss you next year. Please keep in touch.

Love ya,
Lisa

Em/ Snakebite,

Well, we made it through another year at BHS.
We've had a lot of fun times this year, and hopefully many more before this year is up. We've grown up together and I'm glad we've stayed friends.
We've gotten a lot closer this year, and I'm glad of that. Ship Day was a blast! I'll never forget you falling down the hill and bumping your head. OK! Especially when you stole the YMCA sign. That was a riot! Only you Em! You are a very special friend. I hope we will keep in touch even though you'll be in Alabama and I'll be in Raleigh. We've had the best senior year possible, chick! Please keep in touch always.

Em,

I'm not Beth, but I think Beth is finished with signing
It. I hope you have a blast at Alabama. Just don't forget me when you're down there. Meanwhile I'll see you at the park this summer. Stay out of trouble and stay sweet!

ANNE G.

Em,

I hate signing these things:
feeling completely morbid about the times we've all shared, the distance, the future, will put between all of us. It is ~~consoles~~ <sup>though</sup> to realize that the friends
I have are friends I've always had
: ones I will never completely lose. It's so funny to think we've partied together since diaper days even if we just got our kicks from roller skating in your basement! (Remember?) Of course we grew into more mature parties (Mark: Jimmy at Charno's, for instance) but even then some of us couldn't ~~count the~~ coordinate our number of drinks with the number of fingers we held up, could we now? "Just three!"
I will always remember that. Anyway,
Em, you've been the best: friend
I could ask for; thank you being there for me all this time.
You're going to appear at Alabama
when you get there, I can feel it!
I love you!
Anne G.

Linda

Emily,
Hey girl! You've always been a special friend to me, and Em it's going to be so hard to say good-bye. I'll always remember the good times especially because there haven't been any bad. Can't wait until that beach trip! We'll have a blast. Good luck in whatever you do in life. I know you'll succeed.
You're a great friend & I'll always be here for you.

Emily,

I'm really glad that we went to the prom together & had in all that you do. Love
